4. Delegation and Petitions/Public Hearings

4.1 Black History Month – February

Jai Sahak, Diversity & Community Engagement Coordinator, discussed the history of Black Heritage Month and introduced Esther Forde, Chair, Cultural Expressions Art Gallery Inc. Ms. Forde noted this is the 93rd year of recognizing Black Heritage Month in North America and reviewed the theme of this year's events in Ajax. Ms. Forde thanked Council for their continued support and requested that Council proclaim February as Black History Month in Ajax. Deputy Mayor Crawford presented the proclamation on behalf of Council.

4.2 Cadarackque Neighbourhood Watch

Keith Sarre, Interim Lead Facilitator, Cadarackque Neighbourhood Watch, provided a presentation to Council on the Cadarackque Neighbourhood Watch program. Mr. Sarre reviewed the Watch's boundaries, community participation, activities undertaken in their first year, capabilities of the group's website and communications platform, 2019 goals, and funding request from Council.

Council members asked questions regarding the strength of Neighbourhood Watch programs in Ajax, content moderation of the Watch's website, and other sources of community and grant funding available. Tracey Vaughan, Director of Recreation, Culture and Community Development, reviewed the IMPACT Ajax and NEST grant programs and discussed other opportunities for support. Deputy Mayor Crawford thanked Mr. Sarre for his delegation.

4.3 Durham Region Police Service Body Worn Camera Unit Update

Sgt. Jason Bagg, Project Manager, Body-Worn Camera Project, Durham Region Police Service (DRPS), provided a presentation to Council on the Body-Worn Camera Pilot Project. Sgt. Bagg reviewed the mission of the pilot program, deployment of body-worn cameras in Durham, evaluation process and criteria, and development of policy for the proper use of the equipment.

Council members asked questions regarding anticipated costs to implement body-worn cameras if the pilot is successful, training for officers, administrative implications of the equipment on officer time, access to the records by the public, and the expected impact on relations between DRPS and Durham residents. Sgt. Bagg responded to questions from Council members and noted that the results evaluation will provide further information on costs, impacts on time and resources, and overall effectiveness of the tool. Deputy Mayor Crawford thanked Sgt. Bagg for his presentation.

4.4 Durham Region Police Service 2020-2022 Strategic Business Plan

John Henry, Regional Chair, discussed the context and overview of the DRPS 2020-2022 Strategic Plan and introduced Brad Carter, Acting Manager of Strategic Planning, Durham Region Police Service. Mr. Carter reviewed the public input process for the plan's development and asked Council members to provide their feedback on priorities in the plan.

Council members discussed priority safety concerns in Ajax, including traffic safety and speed enforcement, increase in violent crime, diversity of DRPS members, community presence, and declining overall perception of safety in the community. Mr. Carter and Regional Chair Henry responded to questions from members of Council. Deputy Mayor Crawford thanked Regional Chair Henry and Mr. Carter for their presentation.
