3.3.1 Delegation of Powers & Duties re: COVID-19

Council Members asked questions regarding potential closure of Town facilities including Town Hall, direction to staff for potential work from home options, effects of the proposed delegated powers and duties, weekly communication from the Chief Administrative Officer to Council on the exercise of delegated powers and duties, potential service level reductions, Ajax Fire and Emergency Services response and service levels, self-isolation practices for Town staff, financial implications of closures and service level reductions, future termination of the delegated powers and duties, public communication strategy, and communication with seniors and vulnerable populations in Ajax.

Shane Baker, Chief Administrative Officer, responded to questions from Council Members and discussed potential closures and service level reductions that may be enacted under the proposed delegated powers and duties, including potential changes to Ajax Fire and Emergency Services response protocols. Mr. Baker reviewed communication to Council on a weekly basis regarding the exercise of delegated powers and duties under the by-law, self-isolation policies established to date for Town staff, and financial impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic. He noted that the situation is changing rapidly, and any current policy decisions may be reviewed, updated or changed later as needed.

Rachael Wraith, Acting Manager of Public & Strategic Affairs, reviewed the Town's communication strategy for the public and highlighted key communication channels. Christie McLardie, Manager of Public & Strategic Affairs, reviewed communication practices and briefings for Council. Tracey Vaughan, Director of Recreation, Culture & Community Development, reviewed communication practices with the Town's seniors' clubs and vulnerable populations. Members of Council thanked staff for their work on responding rapidly to the COVID-19 pandemic.
