6. Presentations

6.1 CAO-2022-06: New Corporate Giving Program Proposal

K. Cruciano reviewed the contents of the written report and the recommendations contained therein. K. Cruciano discussed the history of community giving in Ajax, existing program deficiencies, steps to date, new program initiatives, program objectives, program eligibility, funding tiers, call for proposals and intake process, indoor and outdoor facility bookings, Durham Community Fund, interim corporate giving funds for 2022, and next steps.

Committee Members asked questions regarding distribution of interim corporate giving funds for 2022, Durham Community Foundation (DCF) Endowment Fund allocations, DCF reporting obligations, the future of fixed allocations to Ajax-Pickering Hospital, delegated authority, approval processes, scoring matrix, funding sources, eligibility criteria, impacts to the Road Watch program, vetting processes, eligibility of for-profit organizations, popularity of hospital funding allocations among area municipalities, and application intake periods. K. Cruciano and C. McLardie, responded to questions from Committee Members.

Committee Members discussed the importance for the approval authority for grants to be overseen by an internal committee rather than Council. Committee Members requested that staff report back after one year with an update on the new program. S. Baker, N. Cooper, and K. Cruciano, responded to comments and questions from Committee Members. Staff noted the direction from Committee Members to ensure that Council is excluded from the funding approval process.

Moved by: S. Collier

1. That Council authorize staff to implement the proposed Corporate Giving Program for launch in November 2022.

2. That Council direct a Corporate Giving Reserve Policy be brought forth to the appropriate staff committee for approval prior to the launch of the Corporate Giving Program.

3. That Council approve the budget-neutral transfer of funds allocated in the 2022 Operating Budget for community granting initiatives to the Office of the CAO for the remainder of 2022.

4. That Council authorize staff to undertake the necessary steps to exit the Town's funding agreement with Durham Community Foundation (DCF) and establish new terms for the legacy of the Town's share of the DCF Endowment Fund.
